

What kinds of thinking are you after in your classroom or school?

Ideas:

Wondering, inquiry, formulating new questions, collaborative, always ask why, react to situations, critical thinking, problem solving, global thinking, beyond own scope and understanding-vertically to new concepts and ideas for self, acknowledging that kids are thinkers, safe thinking environment, know they are thinkers, make decisions for themselves, seeing different perspectives, thinking about how to learn, how to access different tools, metacognition, different ways to solve problems, think in greater depth beyond first thought, patience, confident thinking, making connections, see interrelationships, accept others' opinions,

©2008 Systems Thinking in Schools, Waters Foundation

Clipart from
Microsoft.com